

“The Clinton Street Water Tower Painting Project will begin this week. Work will occur seven days a week from 7 am to 7 pm. As a part of the project, the tower will be completely drained, cleaned, repaired and repainted. Since the tower will be drained for the next three months, it is possible there may be discolored water during this project because of the change in the water distribution.”